Ploughshares News

The Internet, Video Games & Cyberbullying with Crystal Dittrick

This was an extremely worthwhile event presented by an expert in video games and cyberbullying. Ms. Dittrick focused on some basic rules of internet safety, followed by a discussion of the link between children playing violent and mature video games and cyberbullying. One of the key takeaways from the evening was the importance of open and honest communication between parents and children, as well as the importance of ALWAYS being your child's champion. For a more detailed look at the details of the program, please see the Project Ploughshares website at www.ploughsharescalgary.ca for a downloadable version of a brochure we have developed for interested parents and others.

Alternative Remembrance Day Service at the Calgary Community Peace Pole November 11, 2014

Some 28 people braved Calgary's cold weather to participate in Project Ploughshares' Alternative Remembrance Day service. Janyce Konkin, Coordinator of Programs, Alberta for Initiatives of Change, delivered a very moving keynote address. A brief excerpt follows:

"Today, as we remember those who served their countries with honour, those who died for a grander purpose, let us also dedicate ourselves to honouring peace; to honouring all of humanity; accepting our differences, and most importantly recognizing our commonalities. Let us remember that each and every one of us has the ability to change the world by changing ourselves first. We can choose – choose respect of all humanity, choose to maintain the dignity of each individual. We can choose to work on overcoming fear by building trust in our nation, in our communities, in our families. We can choose to be selfless in helping our neighbours; to be honest in our decision-making about 'the other'. So let us each resolve to choose not to listen to the negative media. Let us choose, instead, to get to know each other and to love my neighbour as myself, and build a strong, beautiful, peaceful and peace loving community together with them. I am reminded of this quote from 'The Peace Mask Project' of Cambodia: "One small step towards peace is a large step away from war.""

30th Annual Holiday Peace Fair Saturday November 29, 2014 Parkdale United Church

Attendance was down due to very poor weather conditions - but that did not dampen the spirits of those who attended the annual Holiday Peace Fair! Our sincere thanks to all the vendors who brought their magnificent products, to the shoppers, the organizing committee, Parkdale United Church, and our many diligent (and happy) volunteers.

A very special thank you to the following volunteers - without your commitment and willingness to help out with the Peace Fair, it would not be possible to hold such a unique, community-based event year after year: Lorna Greene, (Overall Peace Fair Coordinator), Helen Negrave (Volunteer Coordinator), Bill Anderson, Janet McKinnon, Katherine Kalmakoff, Kathleen Hatfield, Margaret Fitch, Meryl Arnott (Project Ploughshares Table Coordinator), Joye Brown, George Steber, Trudy Steber, Sally Oddy, Marya Jarvey, Jack Wilkie, Suwanee Hodges, Ash Kahn, John Backhouse, Joan Leclair, Nancy Cathers, Kristen Cathers, Saima Jamal, Donna Fallon, Naushad Dada, Tracey Braun, Lena Osman, Larry Negrave, Bill Dickson, Jessica Holtsbaum (Kitchen Coordinator), Shirley Mann, Margaret Anderson, Ginny Betty, Margaret Chandler, Penny Young, Isabel Miller, Sylvia Hawkins, Lee Wertzler, Mary Clark, Sandra Zazalenchuk, Karin Nybo, Sally Hodges, Bob Hodges, Geoffrey Belleth, Kerry Duncan-McCartney, Maureen Ewasiuk, Garry Fry, Doreen Kot, Carl Svoboda.
